News by Cable Today From All Over the World

WASHINGTON—Possiet Bay, the last of the first rate harbors on the North Coast of Siberia north of Port Arthur remaining in possession of Russia, passed into the hands of Japan according to official advices received here, which reported the occupation of the town by Japanese troops.

CONSTANTINOPLE—The bombardment of the great mosque at Brussa and the destruction of the town by airplane attacks are threatened in an ultimatum received by the governor of Brussel from Vice Admiral De Robeck, British High Commissioner at Constantinople, who has been in charge of the British landing parties along the coast of the sea of Marmora.

SAN FRANCISCO—Mrs. C. E. Moeller, friend and companion of Mrs. John E. Hylan, wife of the mayor of New York, was found bound and gagged in her room in a prominent hotel. The room had been looted by burglars. Mrs. Hylan was not in the apartment at the time.

WARSAW—Along a front of 720 miles the Russian Bolsheviks have launched the greatest attack they have ever hurled against the Polish lines.

Jerusalem—The stars and stripes are flying over the American consulate today for the first time since the break between the United States and Turkey.

SEATTLE—Thomas E. Wilson, head of Wilson & Company, Chicago packers, with extensive interests in Alaska, arrived here today and will leave this week on a pleasure trip to Alaska.

SEATTLE—Fred S. Sylvester head of Sylvester Brothers, wholesale grocers, died here today after a lingering illness.

SALT LAKE—The National Educational Association in convention here declared against teachers' unions.

WASHINGTON—Albert Wile was today appointed postmaster at Ketchikan, Alaska.

CADIZ—Spanish airplanes are dropping bombs on native rebels in Northern Morocco.

LONDON—British destroyers are shelling Turkish positions on the Osian coast.

LONDON—The British dreadnaught, Iron Duke, with her 13-inch guns, is bombarding the inland positions of Turkish Nationalists near Bosphorous. The fire is being directed by airplane.

Thorold F. Field, consulting mining engineer, arrived on the Princess Mary. Mr. Field will spend several weeks on Kupreanof island examining the Towers' mine, with a view of instituting considerably larger scale of operations than at present.

It was the privilege of F. H. Gray of Wrangell to participate in three Fourth of July celebrations this year. Saturday he was present at the celebration in Juneau. Sunday he was present at the celebration in Petersburg, and on Monday he was one of the most interested spectators at the events that were taking place in Wrangell, his home town.

Shriners Con- voyed Into Port by Mosquito Fleet

The Shriners reached Wrangell on their return voyage Sunday evening at 6 o'clock. A mosquito fleet composed of five boats took a goodly portion of Wrangell's population on board at 5 o'clock and went out to meet the Jefferson and Spokane which were travelling together. The steamers were met just around the point of Vank Island and was surely a joyful meeting. Bands played, flags fluttered and handkerchiefs waved. Richard Suratt, Alaska representative of the Gaumont Weekly, was aboard one of the Wrangell boats with his moving picture machine and secured some splendid pictures for his corporation which will not only possess news value but will be excellent advertising of the scenic beauties of the Inside passage. The boats which met the Shriners were: Haleyon, Hazel B No. 4, Frank: H. Madden, F. C. Barnes and Kinema.

Upon the arrival, of the Shriners in Wrangell they found the town in gay attire.

Mayor J. G. Grant, who was to have presided at the patriotic exercises was unavoidably kept away from the meeting. Leonard M. Campbell of the executive committee presided in his absence.

Dr. S. C. Shurick, the baby Shiner was taken from the boat and carried on the shoulders of two Shriners to the prize ring in front of the Wrangell hotel. Here the doctor was introduced to his home people by Potentate Edward Beaumont King as a Noble who had been a first class candidate with grit enough to hang on to the rope. Potentate King stated that he thought the Shriners owed it to their Wrangell friends to pull off some stunt here, and he was going to make Dr. Shurick climb the totem by Matheson's store and bring down the fez that was on top of the totem. Just then Dr. Shurick received a call to attend a patient whose condition was serious. One of the local Shriners assured the Potentate that the call was not a subterfuge. Dr. Shurick was then excused much to the disappointment of all, especially the local Shriners.

Many of the Shriners expressed a desire to see the totem poles and the majority of them wended their way to the east end of town where they viewed the totems and had their meanings explained by the Rev. H. P. Corser, author of Totem Lore.

In the Alaskan pilgrimage were about three hundred Shriners including the Imperial Divan which was elected at Portland on June 23. The divan is composed of the following:

Ellie Lewis Garretson, Tacoma, imperial potentate; Ernest A. Cutts, Savannah, Ga., deputy imperial potentate; James S. McCandless, Honolulu, imperial deputy rabban; Conrad V. Dykeman, Brooklyn, assistant imperial rabban; William S. Brown, Pittsburg, imperial treasurer; Benjamin W. Rowell, Boston, imperial recorder; Esten A. Fletcher, Rochester, N. Y., imperial outer guard; James E. Chandler, Kansas City, imperial high priest and prophet; James C. Burger, Denver, imperial Oriental Guard; David W. Crossland, Montgomery, Ala., imperial first ceremonial master; Clarence M. Dunbar, Providence, R. I., imperial ceremonial master; Frank C. Jones, Houston, Texas., imperial marshal; Leo V. Longworth, Los Angeles, imperial captain of the guards.

The only members of the divan not on the excursion were Imperial Recorder Rowell of Boston and Imperial Treasurer Brown of Pittsburg.

A score of temples of the Shrine were represented among the excursionists, Heila of Dallas, Tex., Lu-Lu of Philadelphia, Al Kader of Portland, Kismet of Brooklyn, Ararat of Kansas City, El Katif of Spokane, Osman of St. Paul, Za-Ga-Zig of Des Moines, El Zangel of Fargo, Alee of Savannah, Aloha of Honolulu, Damascus of Rochester, Aleppo of Boston and Islam of San Francisco.

The next annual session of the Shrine will be held in Atlantic City, New Jersey, in June next year.

The Shriners aboard the Jefferson were from time to time entertained with songs by the Affi Five composed of Frank J. Stapleton, first tenor; H. C. Ford, second tenor; Charles Rickabaugh, baritone; John W. Jones, bass; T. Reeve Jones, pianist and coach.

At every meal they were on the job making life merry in connection with the best eats man or woman ever sat down to and in the evenings giving concerts in the saloon with the assistance of other members of the big family aboard the Jefferson, among whom were Miss Mary Kilpatrick, pianist premiere, and Mrs. Anna S. King, well known Tacoma contralto and wife otherwise of the beloved Potentate of Affi Temple.

Among the songs sung by the Affi Five were a number of parodies that had been composed on the voyage. The following sample will give the reader an idea of the nature of these parodies:

(Tune of Smiles)
Have you ever seen a man like Edward?
Have you ever seen a man like King?
He's the man 'bout whom men like to sing.
An' the smile like you've never seen one.
Is the grin he always has to show:
With his heart and soul in every Shrine thing.
He's a man you'd be proud to know.

The Shriners were doing something every minute of the voyage. On Sunday they presented Mr. and Mrs. King with an expensive and beautiful Chilkat blanket. Later in the day they gave this beloved couple another surprise by presenting them with a huge cake the frosting of which contained many patriotic emblems done in colors. It was surely a wonderful example of culinary art, and many kodak pictures of it were taken. At 11 o'clock in the evening the cake was cut by Mr. and Mrs. King and shared with the other members of the party.

Before the Jefferson sailed Mr. King stated to the reporter that this was his third trip to Alaska and that each succeeding trip had been more enjoyable than the preceding one. He said that he had become very much interested in Alaska curios and that he was going to fit up a room with the souvenirs and relics he had gathered in Alaska. Mr. King's farewell words were: "I'm coming to Alaska again the very first opportunity I get."

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Deimart will learn with much regret that Mr. Deimart is again in the hospital at Benton, Kansas. Two months ago the Deimarts started for Wrangell via Okalahoma. While in that state Mr. Deimart became ill again and turned back. The family are anxious to return to Wrangell, but this is not possible at present.

Wrangell Had Rousing Fourth July Celebration

The 1920 Fourth of July celebration in Wrangell was one which will not soon be forgotten. Never in the history of Wrangell was the weather more favorable for an Independence Day celebration, and never before was a celebration carried out more fittingly and more successfully.

The patriotic exercises were held in the Redmen's hall Sunday forenoon and were well attended. Following the invocation and the singing of the Star Spangled Banner the Declaration of Independence was read by Mr. G. W. Upshaw.

Mrs. John T. Towers of Seattle sang Parla, Italian waltz song by Arditi. She was given a most enthusiastic encore to which she responded with another beautiful selection. When an audience hears Mrs. Towers it becomes so enraptured that it seems unable to get enough of her singing.

At the conclusion of the rendition of her second selection she was given another encore that indicated increasing enthusiasm and appreciation. She most graciously responded with a third selection that was also of a high quality of artistic excellence.

Barbara Frietchie, a recitation by Joel Wing, was well received. The address of the day was made by Mr. H. L. Rowley and was characterized by many strong patriotic utterances.

The recitation, "The General," by Helen Hodges, made a decided hit.

The patriotic exercises were brought to a close by the singing of America after which Adjutant W. J. Carruthers pronounced the benediction.

On Sunday afternoon there was a game of baseball between Wrangell and the crew of sub-chaser 294, resulting in a score of 20 to 5 in favor of Wrangell. The line-up for Wrangell was as follows: E. Shangle, catcher; York Barrington, pitcher; Tip O'Neal, first base; J. Shangle, second base; Fred Lewis, third base; Charles Suomela, short stop; Ted Sterling, left fielder; C. C. Mundy, center fielder; Wm. Lewis, Jr., right fielder. After pitching the first four innings York Barrington changed off with Tip O'Neal. Sid Barrington acted as umpire. There was not a man on the Wrangell team who did not make one or more runs during the game.

The sports committee put up $40 to be paid to the winners of this game. The Wrangell team upon receiving the money showed the right spirit by turning the money over to the visiting team. The visitors at first refused the money but the Wrangell boys were insistent and the money was finally accepted by the sailors.

On Monday the festivities started with a parade which was a beautiful sight. The first float was driven by I. C. Bjorge and contained the Goddess of Liberty represented by Miss Helen Fletcher. On the float with the Goddess of Liberty were a number of little girls dressed in white, and following this float there was a procession of children.

The next float in line was driven by Harry P. McCormack and was very prettily decorated. It also carried a load of little people.

The third float was driven by Valentine Gartley who represented Uncle Sam. On the float with Valentine were a number of little people. Probably but few of the spectators realized that this most attractive float which was decorated with patriotic colors, was William Berger's freight wagon. The work of decorating this float had been done by Mrs. Harry Gartley.

The first event of the day after the parade was a boxing match. As a preliminary to the main event several boys between 10 and 15 years of age gave exhibitions of their pugilistic skill. Mr. H. L. Rowley of the sports committee introduced Chips Gleason and "Pinkey Peabody." These youthful pugilists looked amusing with gloves on that were almost as large as themselves, but when time was called they went at the boxing in a manner that showed that they were not subject to stage fright. At the conclusion of three rounds Charles Lynch, the referee, pronounced the contest a draw.

Mr. Rowley then introduced Robert Edmunson and Loren Hilt. After these boys had boxed three rounds the referee announced the contest a draw.

The last of the preliminaries was a bout between George Case and Lennie Engstrom. This pair put more pep into their boxing than those who had preceded them. This contest also resulted in a draw.

All of the boys did well and were good sports as none of them left the ring dissatisfied.

The main event was a three round boxing match between James Lovett and Sailor Charles Smith of Sub Chaser 294. This proved to be the most popular event of the day, and was such a splendid exhibition that at the end of the second round some of the spectators began showing enthusiastic appreciation by throwing money into the ring. For a few moments silver fairly rained into the ring. At the end of the third round the referee announced the result as a draw. James Lovett is older and more experienced in boxing than Smith. Among the spectators were several persons possessing more or less knowledge of pugilistic tactics, and they were of the opinion that Lovett showed more science than his antagonist. Charles Smith is a likeable sailor boy who belongs to the crew of Sub Chaser 294. He is only 21 years of age, and scarcely more than a beginner in the boxing game, but he made a splendid showing nevertheless, and the same critics who praised Lovett also said that Smith has in him the making of a most successful boxer.

The boxing matches were followed by a wrestling match between Eddie Lynch and Sailor Don Moore of Sub Chaser 294. In this contest three decisions were made in favor of Eddie Lynch.

The greater part of the afternoon was devoted to street sports. (A list of the prizes awarded in the street sports is published on the last page.) At the conclusion of the street sports there was a baseball game between Wrangell and Lake Bay which resulted in a score of 18 to 8 in favor of Wrangell.

The Wrangell Native band furnished excellent music on both days of the celebration.

The following committees are responsible for the success of the celebration:

General Executive committee—Mayor J. G. Grant, C. M. Coulter and Leonard M. Campbell.

SUB-COMMITTEES

Two Lynchings In Texas; Race Riots Follow

PARIS, TEX.—Irving and Herman Arthur, Negroes, and brothers, who last Friday shot and killed their landlord, J. S. Hodges, and his son, William, on the latter's place northeast of Paris, were lynched last night.

PARIS, Tex.—Race clashes in which 100 shots were fired broke out here today following the lynching and burning of two negroes here last night.

Bon Alaska Will Begin Shipping Ore

J. G. Galvin, president of the Bon Alaska Mining company, arrived on the City of Seattle Monday from New York. When seen by the Sentinel reporter at the Wrangell hotel last evening Mr. Galvin said:

"We are going to begin operations at once, and expect to be shipping lead silver ore from the Lake group of claims within 30 days.

"C. J. Leeds and Bert McCay left here today for Mill Creek to make preparations for reestablishing the camp. An outfit of horses and camp equipment will arrive on the Jefferson. Horses and caterpillars with trailers will be used in hauling out the ore, a distance of about four miles from salt water.

"We will employ about 20 men, and expect to increase this number as soon as we get operations under way. This is all the news I will have for you until I am able to report that we have made a shipment of ore."

Edward Beaumont King Addresses the Redmen

The members of the Redmen's lodge had the pleasure of an official visit Sunday evening from Edward Beaumont King, Great Sachem for the State of Washington. Mr. King was in charge of the Shrine pilgrimage to Alaska, and took advantage of the opportunity afforded to visit Stikine Tribe No. 5, of Wrangell. This is the first time since the local tribe was formed more than 16 years ago that an elective officer has ever paid it an official visit.

Mr. King hurriedly inquired into the condition of Stikine Tribe, and when he found what a wonderful showing the tribe had made in the way of contributions during the war he was loud in his praise, and said he felt not the slightest apprehension about the future of a tribe with such a splendid record of patriotism.

The speaker then delivered an address that held his hearers spellbound. It was a sermon on friendship and brotherly love that no one could listen to without being ennobled thereby.

After hearing Mr. King talk it is easy to understand why he is so universally beloved by the members of the organizations with which he is affiliated.

MYSTIC SHRINE HISTORY DATES FROM 689 A.D.

(By L. L. Harding)

A few facts relative to the origin and objects of the great Ancient Arabic Order Nobles of the Mystic Shrine — distinguished representatives of which order will be in the city today seem opportune at this time.

The Order of the Mystic Shrine was founded in Mecca and existed as a great power as early as 698 A. D. The ritual originated in Aleppo. It was very active in Arabia from its foundation. In 1837 it was created in Cairo and rapidly spread throughout Egypt. Prominent Muslims comprised its membership in Southeast Europe. Shrinedom's constant aim and purpose in the Mediterranean and Europe was the acquisition of power which it used solely to benefit the communities by subsidizing the turbulent elements without regard to religion or nationality. The order acknowledged a true and everlasting God, and on this principle they judged and punished criminals that had escaped justice, as mysteriously as they did it mysteriously as they did it boldly. The emblem of the order was a crescent formed by two large tiger claws, joined together by a plate of gold, on one side of which was a crescent formed by two large tiger claws, joined together by a plate of gold, on one side of which was represented a female sphinx. Shrinedom flourished in Mediterranean countries, in Egypt and neighboring countries and as far as India. Nearly every government official was a member of the Shrine.

Brought to West.

In 1870 the noted actor W. J. Florence, in Marseilles, France, by influential friends, was invited to a ceremonial in the Shrine Temple called "Bokhara," the Potentate being Yusef Churi Bey; the ceremonial was put on with full Oriental splendor and wonderful scenic effects. So profound was the impression made on the actor that he immediately endeavored to get the ritual, and through his efforts and the endeavors of Dr. Walter N. Fleming, succeeded in doing so.

In 1872 Doctor Fleming procured detached and mutilated sections of a translation of the ritual of the Arabic Egyptian Order of the Mystic Shrine which had been brought to America by one of the foreign representatives through the hands of Oswald Merle D'Aubigne, 32 degree. It was exceedingly imperfect and incomplete and badly translated. Another section of the ritual was brought from Oriental Europe by illustrious Brother W. J. Florence. Through the efforts of these two Nobles, assisted by a noted linguist, the translation was completed in its present form and was a perfect translation and the same ritual used by the second Kalif, Omar the Magnificent. In introducing the order in America it was deemed advisable to restrict the secrets to Masons of the high degrees only.

Noble, Fleming and Florence conferred the order upon eleven distinguished Masons, and these thirteen constituted the first Shrine Temple at New York City. It was named Mecca. These brothers conferred the degree on others for the purpose of spreading the order. There are today over one hundred and fifty temples in North America, with a membership totalling many thousands. Knight Templar Masons of the York Right and Thirty-Second Degree Masons of the Scottish Rite only are eligible for membership in the Shrine.

The first Temple established on the Pacific Coast was that of Islam at San Francisco in 1883; then came El Kader Temple at Portland, where the Imperial Council meets this year; then the Los Angeles Temple and fourth, Affi Temple whose divan is accompanying the Imperial Council to Alaska this month.

The first Imperial Council, the governing head of all Shrinedom, was established in 1876, and the Imperial Council are also Alaska visitors this month, and it will confer the degree on the fifth Alaska candidate at Juneau—the first time this has been done in the history of Shrinedom in North America.

The Effect of the Shrine Pilgrimage

The visit of the Shriners to Alaska can result in nothing but good for the Territory. Among the men are some of the brightest minds of the nation. They will visit the great Northland and return to their own homes with nothing but pleasant impressions. Hundreds of missionaries working for our good will be scattered to every part of the United States. They will remember their holidays with pleasure and have nothing but good wishes for the Territory that afforded them such a wonderful time.—Douglas Island News.

The newlyweds who were so indiscreet as to go on their honeymoon with the Shriners surely deserved all they got.

Cox and Roosevelt Are Nominated By Democrats

SAN FRANCISCO—Governor James M. Cox of Ohio was nominated for President on the forty-fourth ballot. Franklin D. Roosevelt, Assistant Secretary of the Navy, was nominated for Vice President by acclamation.

SAN FRANCISCO—In the final ballot Cox received a large number of votes which were not counted. The official count was 702.

CAMDEN, O.—"Jim will be as good a president as he has been a son," commented Gilbert Cox, 87 year old father of the Democratic nominee. "I'm happy, of course."

SAN FRANCISCO—Franklin D. Roosevelt left today for Dayton to consult with Cox regarding plans for the coming campaign.

SAN FRANCISCO—Before leaving for the east today Franklin D. Roosevelt intimated that he expected to resign as Assistant Secretary of the Navy at an early date.

SAN FRANCISCO—Senator Hiram Johnson in a formal statement declaring that the League of Nations is the "overshadowing question of the campaign," served an ultimatum on Harding that his (Johnson's) active support of the party this fall will depend largely upon the attitude taken by Harding on the League of Nations.

SAN FRANCISCO—Indications are that the Democratic National Committee will be reorganized with Edmund H. Moore, Cox's campaign manager, as chairman.

SAN FRANCISCO—The Alaska delegation elected Mrs. John W. Troy of Juneau its member of the National Women's committee.

Biographical Sketches of the Nominees

James M. Cox was born at Jacksonburg, Ohio, March 31, 1870. His parents were Gilbert and Eliza A. Cox. He received a public and high school education, was reared on a farm, worked in a printing office, taught a country school, became a newspaper reporter and was connected in an editorial capacity with the Cincinnati Enquirer. He bought the Dayton Daily News in 1898, and the Springfield Press Republic, 1903, forming the News League of Ohio. He was a member of the 61st and 62nd Congresses (1909-13), Third Ohio district. He was governor of Ohio from 1913 to 1915 and from 1917 to 1919. On September 15, 1917 he was married to Margaret Blair of Chicago. He is a member of the Episcopal Church.

Franklin Delano Roosevelt was born at Hyde Park, Dutchess county, N. Y., January 30, 1882. He received the degree of A. B. at Harvard in 1904, and from 1904 to 1907 attended Columbia Law school. He was married to Anna Eleanor Roosevelt of New York, March 17, 1905. In 1907 he was admitted to the New York bar; practiced with Carter Ledyard and Milburn, New York, from 1907 to 1909 when he became a member of the law firm of Marvin, Hooker & Roosevelt. He was elected a member of the New York State Senate in 1910. On March 17, 1913, he resigned from the Senate to accept appointment as assistant secretary of the Navy. He was a member of the Hudson-Fulton Celebration

Commemoration in 1909, and of the Plattsburg Centennial in 1913. He was a member of the National committee of the Panama Pacific Expedition at San Francisco in 1915, a trustee of the Laura Franklin Free Hospital for children, and also a trustee of the Seamen's Institute; a member of the Naval Historical society, the Holland Society, and the Alpha Delta Phi, and a member of the following clubs: City, Harvard, Knickerbocker, Racquet and Tennis (New York), Army and Navy, University (Washington). He is a Mason and a member of the Episcopal Church.

Elmer Oldsby Passes Away

Elmer Oldsby of Sulzer died here Sunday night. Mr. Oldsby was brought in from the West Coast on the last trip of the Princess Pat. His trouble was apparently pulmonary. On Sunday night he passed away. Interment took place Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. Oldsby had resided in Sulzer for a number of years where he had been a miner. He was about 60 years of age. He had always appeared to be in good health until recently when he began failing rapidly. Mr. Oldsby was of Scandinavian birth. He is not known to have any relatives in America other than a brother somewhere in the States.

Walter C. Waters has been appointed administrator.

R. R. Rudd, who was formerly connected with the local cable office, but who has been in Sitka for several months, arrived on the Jefferson Sunday evening. Mr. Rudd received his discharge from the Signal Corps of the U. S. Army on June 28. He has accepted a position as wireless operator with the U. S. Shipping Board. Shortly after his arrival in Seattle he will leave on a voyage to the Orient, and upon his return from the Far East will leave on another voyage which will take him through the Panama Canal.

The regular monthly meeting of the Wrangell Fire Department was held Tuesday evening. The fire chief reported that the fire department had been called out several times during the past month, but that there had been no fires of any serious consequence. One of the veteran firemen made a request that his name be dropped from the list of active firemen. On motion the secretary was directed to start a list of honorary members, with the understanding that any old time members may at their own request have their names transferred to this list.

George G. Hurst, a newspaper man of New York City, will arrive in Wrangell next week and spend a short vacation in this vicinity.

Mrs. I. C. Bjorge left on the City of Seattle Tuesday night for Juneau to be present at the marriage tonight of her sister, Miss Lessie George to Mr. Martin Burkland of Astoria. Miss George is a charming young lady who has made many friends in Wrangell during her visits in her sister's home here. Mr. Burkland is a splendid young man of the highest character. He is manager of the Astoria store of the Pacific Net and Twine Co.

The Princess Pat took out a merry party of young people on a moonlight cruise Sunday night. The young people are still singing the praises of Captain Waters with whose compliments the cruise was given.

The dance given by the American Legion Monday night was a success in every way. The floor, music and floor management were all of the best and insured everyone having a good time. The City of Seattle which made port about six o'clock in the afternoon remained until midnight. Many of the passengers attended the dance and joined in the merrymaking.

Henry A. Pierce, one of the most widely known journalists in the Northwest was among the Shriners who were in Wrangell the first of the week. Mr. Pierce is editor of the Spokane Chronicle, the newspaper with which Miss June Elliott was connected at the time she accepted a position on the Wrangell Sentinel.

The gross receipts of the sale of ice cream and cake held on July 5th by St. Philip's Guild were $234.65. The net proceeds will be $165.00 which will be placed in the new Guild room fund.

Jim Hurley Goes To the Pioneer Home at Sitka

James Hurley, 89 years old and blind, arrived from Craig on the Princess Pat Sunday and left on the City of Seattle Monday for Sitka where he will enter the Pioneers Home.

Mr. Hurley has been a frontiersman most of his life. In the early Seventies he came to Olympia, Wash. At that time there were less than a dozen white women in Olympia, and only four white women in Seattle. In 1877 he came to Wrangell and from here he went up the Stikine into the Cassiar. During the Eighties he came out of the Cassiar and went to Tombstone, Arizona, and from there he went into Old Mexico. In 1896 he returned to Wrangell and resided here until 1898 when he joined in the Klondike rush. This adventure proved to be an unfortunate one for Mr. Hurley as it cost him his savings amounting to more than $5,000.

After spending several years in the vicinity of Dawson he returned to Wrangell and again took up his abode here. From here he went to the West Coast where he was employed for six years at the Jumbo mine which was operated by the late Charles A. Sulzer.

For the past five years he has resided at Craig. Mr. Hurley says that it was his hope that he could be active as long as he lived and that it is only on account of his blindness that he has finally decided to go to the Pioneers' home.

Mr. Hurley says that during the two days he was here en route to the Home a number of his old friends called on him at the hotel and he requested the Sentinel to express to them his appreciation of their thoughtfulness.

Card of Thanks

The Guild extends hearty thanks to all who helped with donations and labor at their ice cream sale. The success of the sale was due in a large measure to the kindly help of men and women who have no connection with the organization, and the generous patronage of the community was also greatly appreciated.

The local representative for the American Library Association will be in the city hall Saturday afternoon from 3 to 5 to receive contributions from anyone interested in the "Books for Everybody" movement. Any sum will be thankfully received. The final report from this community will be sent on the first northbound boat and Wrangell has contributed less than $20 to the fund so far.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Rhodes of Centralia, Wash., were with the Shrine party which was here Monday evening. While the vessel was in port they visited with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Pritchett, and with Mr. Lin Shields. Mr. Rhodes is president of the Farmers' and Merchants' Bank of Centralia.

A. L. Dynes last month published a vest pocket directory of Ketchikan, Metlakatla and Hyder which is surely multum in parvo. As a reference book it will be invaluable to residents of the three towns covered by the work and also to others who may have business connections in the lower end of the first division. Four thousand copies of the edition were printed. We have been reliably informed that in the near future Mr. Dynes will begin work on a directory for Wrangell and the towns tributary to this port.

Found—A child's ring. Owner may recover at Sentinel office.

WATER NOTICE

(Revised)

Notice is hereby given that the following changes have been made in the Wrangell water rates: Dwellings, private residences, etc., occupied by one family, maximum $1.75; minimum $1.25.

Water supplied from public or private tap, $75c per month for each person, whether supplied from residence or public place.

Water rate for the McCormack dock, $2.50 per month for each tap supplying water for fish cleaning business.

Butcher shops or meat markets, $2.50 per month.

Alaska Sanitary Packing company, for the season, 1920, $120.

Passed and approved by the Common Council of Wrangell, June 9th, 1920.

"Water rents are due on the 1st day of each calendar month and if not paid on or before the 10th of said month a penalty of 10 per cent of the amount of the bill will be added and if this amount, including penalty, be not paid by the first of the following month, the water will be turned off."

Palatial Yacht In Port Today

Under charter to J. H. Ladew, a prominent New York sportsman, Robert Moran's beautiful yacht, Sanwan, arrived in Wrangell yesterday afternoon. She is commanded by Captain Harry Crosby, an experienced navigator who is well known to many Alaskans.

Mr. Ladew is accompanied by his wife, his son, Harvey Ladew, Jr., his nephew, L. Crossup, his niece, Miss A. Wall, Roland Earle, and Captain J. H. Bond, all of New York. They are taking a two months' cruise through Southeastern Alaska.

The Sanwan is an auxiliary yacht of unusually fine construction. She is powered with two 65-horsepower Corliss gas engines which give her a cruising speed of 7½ knots, while she has a sailing speed of a little better than 13 knots. Sanwan is 136 feet over all, draws 15 feet of water and carries 25 tons of lead on her keel.

The vessel has 20 staterooms, a large dining salon, and an observation salon in the aft deck house. She carries a crew of seven men.

P. Loberg of Burnet Inlet was among the Fourth of July visitors to Wrangell. Mr. Loberg is a Shriner and while here donned his red fez and joined with the local Shriners in extending a welcome to the visiting Nobles.
